Direct Shipment and Fees Authorization

The item(s) you ordered must ship directly from our Japan office due to permit requirements, temperature sensitivity, or other shipping considerations.

Please review and complete the sections below to authorize the shipment method and any applicable fees.

Prepaid and Added Shipping

To process your shipment with UPS, shipping and handling charges must be billed using either Cosmo Bio USA's UPS account or your own UPS account. Please select one option below.

- I accept prepaid and added shipping and handling using Cosmo Bio USA's UPS account.
- I would like to use my own UPS account. UPS Account Number: _____

UPS Premier

For shipments requiring dry ice or gel packs, UPS Premier will be included when the shipment is processed using Cosmo Bio USA's UPS account. UPS Premier provides enhanced visibility, priority handling, and additional support for time- and temperature-sensitive shipments.

If you choose to use your own UPS account, UPS Premier will not be added by Cosmo Bio USA, as this service may not be available or set up under your account.

Declared Value

Because this is an Ex-Works shipment, responsibility for the item(s) transfers once they leave our Japan facility.

Declared value allows UPS to increase its maximum liability in the event of loss or physical damage during transit, subject to UPS terms, conditions, and claim approval. Declared value is not cargo insurance and does not guarantee reimbursement for all transit-related issues.

- I accept declared value. An additional fee of $1.70 per $100 of declared value will be added to the invoice.
- I decline declared value.

Customs Fees

Your shipment may be subject to customs duties, taxes, brokerage fees, or other import-related charges assessed by UPS or the destination country's customs authorities. These charges are the responsibility of the customer/importer. To support customs clearance, please provide your applicable registration or identification number below.

- I accept responsibility for any applicable customs or import-related charges.
